Contest ChiMiCapisce 2018

SCI Giovani announces the contest "ChiMiCapisce", the first initiative in Italy aimed to reward the communication and dissemination skills in chemical sciences of under-35 young researchers (graduate, Ph.D. students, post-docs, ...).

We invite you to apply before May 10 via e-mail. If you are selected, you will take part to the final competition that will take place on June 8 at Università di Roma La Sapienza, when the best candidates will have 3 minutes to narrate their research activity to an heterogeneous audience. The top-three scores will be awarded with cash prizes during the event, which will also be the best opportunity to introduce the newborn SCI Group of Chemical Culture Diffusion.
